

Forest School Parental involvement policy

- We recognise parents as their children's first and most important educators.
- Through liaising with the educational setting and by means of written information, email and through regular informal communication, we inform all parents about how forest school is run and its policies
- If parents wish to participate in Forest School they are made welcome
- We welcome the contributions of parents, in whatever form these may take

- Written October 2013
- Reviewed February 2018
- To be reviewed February 2020